Kirk's Komments...

I enjoyed being at the Freed-Hardeman Lectures last week. I did not stay as long as I usually do but I enjoyed the lectures I was able to attend. I also purchased some CDs of lectures and have been downloading lectures from the FHU webpage. I have listened to several lectures since returning home. This is a great way to learn. If you would like more info on how you can do this, then give me a call. I also encourage you to build a vacation day or two in next year so you can drop by the lectures. I think you would find it well worth the effort. I also enjoyed spending some time with Gary Dodd, his son Andrew, and Andrew's girlfriend at the lectures. Gary did an excellent job with his message on "His Grace" and I grow more and more excited about his coming work here at Graymere.

It is good to have the Panama team back. I have heard rave reviews about the trip and the great job Ken Young did in leading the group. My mom and sister shared glowing assessments of Graymere, the mission team, and the people in Panama. I look forward to the team's report on how the trip went. Please continue to remember the six people who are currently on a mission trip in India and surrounding countries. In an email from John Vaughan, he said there had been five baptisms as of last Saturday. We pray that their work is going well and that they will have a safe return home. We are also making final preparations for two work trips to Kayenta, Arizona in April. Please pray about this effort as well. God continues to work through His people. He is making a difference through you!

New Class: We have started a new study in the Middle Agers Class on "What Next." We are looking at what the New Testament teaches about what happens when a person leaves this earthly existence. We are currently looking at what is taught in the Gospels. If you are not presently participating in a Sunday morning Bible class, we would love to have you in our class in the fellowship hall.
