Kirk's Komments...

What a weekend! We had great turnout's for the Bishop anniversary reception and the Dodd welcome receptions. The Bishops are very dear to this congregation and I am grateful that there was a big turnout for their special day. I was able to here Gary's sermon Sunday night and he did an excellent job. I also heard rave reviews about his Sunday morning lesson. He and Faith are going to be a blessing to our work. Cindy and I had a great time with the young-marrieds class in Gatlinburg this weekend. I have been wanting to go on this trip with them ever since I moved here but could not work it out until this past weekend. They are an incredible group of Christian couples and Cindy and I are grateful for the privilege of spending time with them and calling them "friends." Mike Kinnard did a wonderful job of preaching at the retreat. It is great to see God's people enjoying each other's fellowship. We also had a good group of kids to go with Charlie and Mandy to the Ethridge Kids Rally. Hannah said they all enjoyed it. This past weekend reminds me of the words of Acts 2:42, "And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship" (NKJV).

Sunday Night Series: Starting Sunday night, March 11, I plan to return to the "Sermon's From" Series on Sunday nights. You may remember that during my first year at Graymere we looked at a lesson from a different book in the Bible each week. We stopped at the book of Song of Solomon and started a new study. I would now like to pick back up with the book of Isaiah and finish the Old Testament. I hope you will make plans to join us. I will try to have the lesson in the bulletin each week so you can be reading from the book we will study that week.

AM Sermon: "Together but not Better" - 1 Corinthians 11:17-34

Graymere members in the medical field:

This Sunday evening immediately following worship we would like to meet with any who would be interested in knowing how to use the defibrillator kept in the storage room at the front of the auditorium (Bill's office). Tim Gordon and Hugh Langley will be conducting the meeting. If you know of anyone in the congregation with a medical background who might be interested, please let them know. We will gather under the balcony near the storage room. This meeting should only last 10-15 minutes. You may call the church office if you need more information.

Any Graymere ladies who would like to participate in the next session of the Secret Sisters Program, pick up forms at the Information Center. Fill it out and place it in the box provided at the Information Center. Deadline to sign up is March 4.

Information Received From Peter Solomon:

“Asamandur, a village about 85 km north of Chennai, the entire village has been brought to Christ and were baptized. I took some 18 of the SaiNagar Christians and the National Bible College students on 26th January to meet and teach them. ...We have spent several hours of teaching and correcting the myths of Hinduism and traditions. The entire adult population of the village had a rousing spirit of decision to leave the age old idolatry to obey the Gospel. I personally felt shaky because the whole village in a changing transformation. We thank God for the 72 people who courageously obeyed. Please pray for this new Christians that we may find an Evangelist quickly to teach and mature them.” This is an excerpt from a letter received from Peter Solomon, dated February 10, 2007.

Thank You from the Dodds

“Words will not adequately express our feelings about becoming members of the Graymere congregation. You welcomed us graciously. Your reception of our family was warm and encouraging. The luncheon provided by the families of the elders and church staff was sumptuous. The reception hosted by the Senior Adults was tasteful and beautiful. It allowed us to meet several members. We pray for a ministry that will glorify God. We anticipate a meaningful relationship with you. We are exuberant about serving the Lord in Columbia and beyond.”
