Kirk's Kommentare...

“Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them . . .”

(Rom 12:6 NKJV).

I saw this verse lived out this past Sunday. It was at the funeral of Cubbie Eastep. Amy Hayes translated the service into sign language. She even translated the songs. During one of the songs, I noticed Kathy Tucker signing along with her from her seat in the audience. There are several family members and friends of Cubbie who would not have understood the service were it not for Amy. A number of Graymere members have invested their time in learning sign language so that those who cannot hear can receive the Gospel and grow in the Lord. They are using their talents to God's glory.

The first of two mission teams will leave for Kayenta, Arizona this Saturday. Graymere helps to support Josh Austin in his work with the Navaho congregation there. Our teens have made two VBS/evangelism trips to Kayenta. The two trips taking place in April of this year are work trips designed to help complete the inside of their church building. There will also be teacher training classes. The folks going on these trips are using their gifts for the glory of the Lord. These are just a few examples of the many people at Graymere who are making a difference through the power of God. Thank you for using your gifts.
