

An Update from Andrew...

We just concluded our 14th annual Future Ministers Camp and our 5th annual Spiritual Growth Camp. There were 22 young ladies who participated in SGC, and they all did a great job. They enjoyed devotionals, classes, and they participated in several service projects. Campers painted our newly redesigned sensory room, cut out visuals for Bible Classes, visited nursing homes, and did some yard work for those who needed it. They also enjoyed a breakfast hosted by our elders' wives. I love that a tradition has developed where our elders' wives are involved in the lives of these young ladies. Emma Butt, Katie Williams, Amy Schwartz, and Kathryn Phillips, along with others who helped during the week, led a terrific camp!

On Sunday, participants in our Future Ministers Camp led our morning worship service, as well as five adult Bible classes. This allowed each of our campers to present the lesson he had been working on during camp. We had several parents who made the drive to worship with us, and I appreciate all the encouragement given to these young men by Graymere members. We had 28 young men participate, and I am thankful for all the people who made this camp possible. I know these camps require a lot of effort from members to provide food, change our usual Bible class schedule, etc., and I am thankful for the way this church family seeks to encourage young men to consider ministry.

We also had an excellent Promotion Sunday. We are blessed with many children at Graymere, and we even added an additional elementary school class. I am thankful for all of our teachers who put in the time to make this happen. They are consistently working to update our curriculum and think of ways we can allow our classes to grow. Chad Landman has been working hard to help our education program grow. Also, we added a newly renovated Special Needs Sensory Room, complete with special curriculum for a Special Needs Bible Class. This is a tremendous resource to help families, and I am thankful for our group of volunteers in this ministry who have been working to make this a reality.

For the past couple of summers, I have had the privilege to take a PhD class at Regent University in Virginia Beach, and our family will be traveling there this week for another class. Tonight, I will be speaking for the Old Hickory Church of Christ in Nashville for their Summer Series. Tomorrow, we will make our way to Virginia. I am thankful to Jon David Schwartz and Jon Winchester for preaching on Sunday and to Chris Elrod for teaching the Small Auditorium Class. We will miss worshipping with you, and we will be back by the next Sunday. Let's keep working and growing together!

Thank You

"Your friendship means the world to us. For the kind thoughts, prayers, and gifts, Thank You! Words can't tell you how much your kindness has meant to us. We were totally overwhelmed by the notes, cards, and good wishes at the gathering in our honor."

Ron & Annette Stone

"We would like to thank everyone for the words of encouragement, cards, and prayers during the loss of our loved one, Katherine Ewell. Katherine was a faithful Christian and taught Ladies' Bible classes for many years. We appreciate our Graymere family."

Earl & Wanda Qualls

"Thank you for the concern, calls, cards, the visits, and encouragement from all at Graymere. Thank you for your love that was around us during the loss of Hunter. That will always be in our hearts forever."
