

AN UPDATE FROM ANDREW

Families celebrate together, and Sunday was a reminder of how true that is for church families. We had a great number for our worship together, and Jody Pigg did an excellent job teaching our combined adult class in the auditorium. We focused on memorials during worship, our class was centered on what we can do now to leave a legacy of faith. This provided a great context for our afternoon devotional, as Jon David challenged all of us to consider who we will serve in the future. The meal was excellent, and we are grateful for the team of people that came together to make it happen.

What a blessing to honor our graduating seniors: Amelia Briceno, Caleb Clanton, Jack Love, Abigail Robinson, and Finley Skelton. These talented young people have each grown spiritually and been a special part of our youth group, not to mention our church family. We look forward to how God will use them in the future, and I know all of us are dedicated to encouraging them in any way possible. Don't forget to check out their Senior Tables if you haven't already.

Sunday morning will be a great opportunity for us to learn more about the work in Lima, Peru. Our worship will be led by the group that went on a recent campaign there: Matt Bowling, Jon Compton, Ben Farris, Jeff Loveless, Michael Miller, and Jon Winchester. We will be challenged spiritually and encouraged by what God is doing through His people all over the world.

Tonight, we will participate in a Kingdom Focus night in the Fellowship Hall. This will be a special evening with a focus on prayer. You will find cards where you can write down prayer requests and submit them for a prayer at the end of our worship service. Requests can be anonymous, or you can include your name with specific prayer requests. It will also function as a special invitation to allow people to ask for prayers or support. In addition to this, several will be sharing updates on ministries, opportunities for service this summer, and other things to keep in our prayers. It will be a special time. I will be speaking for the Chapel Hill Church of Christ tonight as part of their summer series, and I will look forward to worshipping with everyone on Sunday. Let's keep learning and growing together!

THANK YOU

Graymere,

We are sincerely thankful to each of you for all your acts of kindness, especially your visits to the funeral home that brought such comfort during the loss of our son, Patrick. Cards, calls, and flowers were a beautiful reminder of how blessed we are by our Graymere family.

Kevin & Donna Thompson

A heartfelt note of gratitude to Jack, Fred, Doug, and everyone who contributed to make our recent tour of Pigeon Forge such a success. Linda suffered a fall the week before, and shouldn't have attempted the trip, but she could think of no better way to celebrate her birthday than to be with her church friends. And it was those same friends who graciously assisted Linda with the difficulty of entrance and exit from the bus. If anyone is searching for a dedicated church family, look no further than Graymere.

The trip was a wonderful experience - lots of laughter and fun. And I can say, without fear of contradiction, that we set a long-standing record for caloric intake of food.

Thanks again to everyone. There is no better security than a closeknit church family.

Martin and Linda Jobe
