

AN UPDATE FROM ANDREW

What a blessing to be led in worship on Sunday morning by the individuals that were part of the recent Peru mission trip! Matt Bowling, Jon Compton, Ben Farris, Jeff Loveless, Michael Miller, and Jon Winchester encouraged all of us about what God is doing and will continue to do in Peru. Michael Miller preached an excellent sermon and Jon Winchester gave us important updates about the trip and future opportunities. I hope all of us are praying about ways we can support that work. As a reminder, we do have those magnets available in the foyer with the names of our missionaries on them. This would be a good reminder for us to keep them in our prayers and send them encouraging e-mails.

I am also grateful for the opportunity our church family had on Wednesday night to focus on upcoming Graymere events and efforts in prayer. Our next Kingdom Focus Wednesday will not be until June 19, which will be part of our VBS. As Jon David mentioned on Wednesday, we are preparing to welcome our two youth interns, Max Ballard and Mia Morris, as well as a summer ministry intern, Austin Tredway. I hope that you will introduce yourself and encourage them this summer. They will be working hard and learning a lot about ministry!

One of our summer events coming up is our Future Ministers Camp, which will take place from July 14-17 this year. This is a new date for this camp, and we are hoping it will allow more people to be part of it. There are brochures in the Fellowship Hall – please be sure to pick one up and share it with any young man you think might be interested. This camp is designed to encourage leadership in the church, and we hope that any young man interested in growing as a Christian leader will be part of it. If you have any questions, you can ask me or check out the brochure at www.graymere.com/fmc.

On Sunday, we will begin a series called “Family Values,” where we will explore the various challenges we face in glorifying God in our families. No matter what stage of life you are in or how large your family might be, there are important scriptural principles we all need to consider thoughtfully. Since Sunday is Mother’s Day, it is an appropriate time for us to have that focus. We will spend time in Proverbs 31, a familiar passage, and we will seek to view it with a fresh perspective. Let’s keep learning and growing together!

MISSIONS MINUTE

In addition to local church work in Sullurpeta, India, our brother, S. Dananjaya has dedicated his life to helping children. He works tirelessly to operate two homes for children in Sullurpeta and Tada. They have recently concluded three days of Vacation Bible School for these children, as well as others in their community.

REMEMBER IN PRAYER

Margaret Norman (mother of Kenny Norman & Debbie Boehms) - has returned home
Susan Greene - dismissed from hospital; awaiting surgery
Danny Patterson - prayers requested
Ray Davis - Maury Regional

Visitation Team 8, Jerry & Judy Pritchett leaders, will meet Sunday night after services in FR1.

Over 75 ladies of the congregation are signed up for the next session of Heartfelt Friends at Graymere. Don't miss your opportunity to register if you are not already in Heartfelt. Registration will end May 31. Visit the registration table in the education foyer or contact Terri Baker, Cherry Wiley, Amy Hayes, or the office for more information.

Tommy Gore will begin a new class on the Gospel of Mark in the Auditorium on Wednesday evenings starting this evening, May 8. This class will take place most of the summer aside from Kingdom Focus Wednesdays (June 19 and July 3).
