

An Update from Andrew...

An Update from Andrew...

The church body is a family, and that has been easy for us to see this week. On Sunday, Garrett Lunn came forward requesting our prayers. Garrett is a great young man, and I am thankful for his desire to do what is right. Be sure to let him know how proud you are of him!

Saturday also gave us a chance to see the church family in action. Every year, I am amazed at how hard everyone works to make Give Away Day a reality, and this year was no different. We helped over 220 families go through the line, and it was a joy to watch Graymere members of all ages serve together. One new addition this year was the MRMC Mobile Clinic, which gave free blood pressure checks and flu shots to those who were waiting in line. Add to that the workers at the Outreach Center handing out clothes, the workers in the Give Away Day storage building handing out household items, and the volunteers in the YAC providing childcare, and you have the recipe for a great day of service. Be sure to let Matt and Julie Bowling and Andrew and Katie Williams know how much you appreciate the sustained effort they put in throughout the year to make Give Away Day a success!

On Sunday night, our youth group and Southgate's youth group had a combined worship service at the Bishop's home. This is a really neat tradition that has developed over the years, and I love the fact that our teens have that opportunity. Thank you to the Bishops for hosting, along with all those who helped put that event together.

Wednesday night will bring with it another opportunity for the church family to come together. Our Trunk or Treat is always an opportunity to welcome guests, and we will have several Into the City families with us as well. This will be a good chance for us to meet some of the children who have been learning during those Into the City classes, and it will also give us a chance to enjoy fellowship as a church family. I look forward to our "sermon in song" at 6:30, and our Trunk or Treat will begin at 7:15.

Columbia Bible Institute, our annual preachers retreat, will begin on Sunday. Sunday morning, we will be blessed to hear Josh Austin preach for us. We oversee the work of the Austin family with the Salt River Church of Christ in Mesa, Arizona, and Josh will be with us for Columbia Bible Institute. An additional blessing will take place on Sunday night, as Kirk Brothers will be preaching for us. Kirk served as one of the coordinators for CBI for several years, and he will be with us for a Sunday and Monday of CBI.
