

An Update from Andrew...

We have been blessed with several new families this year, and that blessing continued on Sunday. We welcomed Joan and Laila Blackburn to our church family. They live in Summertown and have been visiting with us for a few weeks. Be sure to welcome them and get to know them.

I am looking forward to our "Snacks with Santa" on Sunday night, immediately following our evening service. We will have food, games, and fun in the Fellowship Hall. Even if you don't have any children to participate, please take the time to stop by and enjoy the event. One key part of our preparations involves presents for some of our Into the City children. Many of you have already taken items from the Angel Tree to purchase items, and we will also be preparing stockings for the Into the City Children. Next week, during the usual time for Into the City, there will be a special event that will invite the parents to join the children for a special dinner and time of worship. Let's keep praying for this ministry!

Don't forget about our schedule change on December 30th. We will have a meal after the morning worship service, followed by an afternoon worship time. Due to Fellowship Hall preparations, we will have a combined adult class in the auditorium. Not only does this schedule provide some fellowship time, it also allows us to attend the area-wide worship service held at Columbia Academy at 5:00 that evening. Our own Caleb Nutt will be one of the young men leading that worship service, and it will be encouraging to see these young people who are active in growing spiritually and serving others.

There is also a sign-up sheet for our Graymere guys trip on January 21, 2019. We will leave the building on Monday morning and get back that night, at approximately 10:30. The day will include a BBQ lunch, a trip to the Bass Pro at the Pyramid, and a Grizzlies game. This trip has become a great chance for grandfathers, fathers, sons, and grandsons to spend time together. We have 46 spots available right now, although we can certainly get more tickets if needed. Be sure to sign up soon. We have a lot going on – be sure to find a place to plug in, and let's keep learning and growing together!
